Description:

I usually lose myself in Anna Quindlen's books..this one not so much. While the story started out grabbing my attention, about half way through I tired of the repetition of events and was hoping for a wrap up sooner than it happened. I had to make myself finish the book (skimming over parts). SPOILER: the ending was a bit quick and none too happy. Never saw that coming. I know people in abusive relationships, and most of the men are not as intelligent as this dude - would never think through the situation enough to devise this intricate of a plan. Most abusers I have known, are just plain mean and not too smart.
